

I tavel alot and it is nice to check the weather for the area or close to the are I am going to. Please keep the weather and news on XM, this could help in saving lives by letting people know whats going on in the areas, after all this is about keeping the public safe and letting us know whats going on. If you save one life by give the info they need then you done your job. Its not about money or is it.